

DESCRIPTION

The Neva stool is a study in simplicity and elegance, echoing the flowing lines and organic forms of the Neva collection. Its refined silhouette highlights the beauty of natural wood, with gentle curves that bring softness to its minimalistic shape. Designed to balance functionality and aesthetics, the Neva stool can serve as a versatile seating option, a side table, or an accent piece. Its understated design allows the material to take center stage, making it a timeless addition to any space.

PRODUCTION PROCESS

The stool frame is crafted from solid wood, with each element carefully cut and shaped for structural integrity and visual harmony. Wooden elements of the same length but varying widths are joined using CNC precision, ensuring flawless connections. The pieces are hand-matched for color and grain, and select components may be shaped using wood-bending techniques to achieve the stool's smooth contours. After assembly, the frame undergoes meticulous hand-sanding with fine-grained sandpaper, giving it a soft, velvety finish. The final step involves applying a protective finish, with a range of options available to customize the stool's appearance. The result is a perfectly balanced piece — durable, elegant, and crafted to stand the test of time.
